Overview

Last week, you took a careful look at the external environment faced by Great Cups of Coffee and its competitors. This week you will research and analyze important information about key competitors and Great Cups of Coffee itself. The combination of your findings in this assignment and the external analysis completed last week will serve as the foundation for your TOWS analysis which will be undertaken in Week 5. This is a cross functional assignment.

Action Items

Your paper should contain two main sections. The first section will focus on the competitors and the second on Great Cups of Coffee.
